Support

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to provide immediate access to low-barrier, safe, inclusive, transitional housing for our neighbours experiencing homelessness.

We will also offer diversion strategies for those from out of the region and provide referrals to community programs covering housing, employment, mental health, spiritual care, and addictions recovery.

HOPE

Homelessness does not equal hopelessness. There is hope for every person to reach their potential. However, it takes an entire community of people working together offering:

Help
Opportunities
Patience and Encouragement
